OTHER COMMENTS**

The proposed place of use is within the service area of Salt Lake City and within the service area of the Cahoon & Maxfield Irrigation Company.

This Exchange Application is filed pursuant to the Exchange Agreement between Salt Lake City and Cahoon & Maxfield Irrigation Company dated May 28, 1921, to supply water for Salt Lake City and its service area in Salt Lake County. The waters of Little Cottonwood Creek will be diverted by Salt Lake City from stated points of diversion and utilized for municipal purposes within Salt Lake City and its Service Areas. In exchange, Salt Lake City will make available to the Company water from Utah Lake and Jordan River. The flows of Little Cottonwood Creek fluctuate during the different seasons of the year and in the different years. Therefore, the physical Exchange of water may vary from week to week, month to month, year to year.

Salt Lake City's rights to the use of Utah Lake and Jordan River water for domestic, irrigation and municipal purposes and to exchange the same for waters from Cottonwood creeks, and other mountain streams was expressly confirmed by the Morse Decree #2861, dated July 15, 1901 (paragraph "Twelfth" of the Findings of Fact attached hereto), and subsequently confirmed by the Booth Decree, dated June 5, 1909 (paragraph "II" of the Findings of Fact attached hereto). Accordingly, this Exchange Application is filed to conform the records of the office of the State Engineer to identify the locations of the points of diversion, points of delivery and places of use of the waters exchanged since 1921 without prejudice to the rights of Salt Lake City to make the exchange as confirmed by the foregoing Morse and Booth Decrees.

This Exchange Application supersedes Change Application Number all75 which in fact was an Exchange Application for which no proof of exchange was required under Utah law. However, extensions of time within which to file proof of change were granted until March 28, 1983, being the end of the fifty (50) year period at which time Change Application all75 was improperly lapsed.
